HARLEM'S GOOD RACING.

The usual big gathering was on hand again yesterday at Harlem and witnessed a splendid card of seven races. Close finishes were the rule of the day and a better day's sport for a lot of purse offerings could not have been given anywhere. The feature event of the day was the fourth race, a dash of one and one-eighth miles for four-year-olds and upward. Only three faced the barrier, the talent hitting upon Pat Dunne's Star Chamber as the probable winner, and such proved the case, but it was not until after a pretty stretch brush with Malay that his number was hung up. To a perfect start Star Chamber at once shot to the front, closely followed by Strangest, with Malay last. Star Chamber increased his advantage to almost three lengths while going down the backstretch, while Malay easily displaced Strangest in second place, the last named gradually dropping away after the first half had been run. Malay closed on the leader somewhat as the latter straightened for home. It seemed when they were at the last eighth post that Star Chamber would win easily, but in the last one hundred yards he began to tire and Malay closed up on him. Winkfield went to work with vigor and he managed to get Star Chamber under the wire a head in the lead, while Malay beat Strangest three lengths for second place. The finish was an intensely exciting one and was productive of much enthusiasm in the grand stand. Star Chamber's victory was due in a great measure to the fact that there was no pacemaker in the race and for the want of one the horse set his own pace.

The hurdle race over a mile and five furlongs route proved to be a well contested affair despite the fact that two of the jumpers fell at the third hurdle. Old Refugee made his initial bow at the jumping game and showed to fine advantage, being beaten on the post by only a nose. Eva Moe, the winner, fenced cleanly throughout, but was hardly a match for Refugee on the flat. The old rogue lost some ground after taking each obstacle, but made up the lost ground between hurdles. He was slow in getting over the last jump and lost about three lengths, but was making it up fast in the closing strides. Mazo ran well for a mile and an eighth and then began to tire. Both Corrillo and Cassio went down at the third jump.

Master Mariner appears to have a mortgage on sprinting races hereabout judging from his excellent showing of yesterday. He was pitted against so speedy a horse as St. Cuthbert, but made the latter give it up after running head and head with him for five and a half furlongs. To a good start he and St. Cuthbert ran as one horse to the last sixteenth, where Knight was forced to go to the whip, and then it was seen that St. Cuthbert was beaten. Master Mariner then came away and appeared to be winning easily, but Andes came with a surprising rush at the end, compelling Bassinger to urge out Master Mariner to the limit to win by the shortest of heads. St. Cuthbert was three-quarters of a length back. Andes made up much ground in the last eighth and showed startling improvement over his last previous race. Toah made up ground in the run in and altogether ran a fair race. Velma Clark showed a fair race, and is about ready to win when placed right.

Landseer was much the best in the fifth race a five and a half furlongs scramble for two-year-olds. He was outrun by Lingo for the first five-eighths, but closed up stoutly in the last sixteenth and had no trouble in beating out Lingo by a length. Lingo was much the best of the others, beating Throble by two lengths for second place. Neither Santa Teresa nor Legal Maxim ran their races. Prince Webb showed a good turn of speed for a half mile.

The sixth race, a dash of one mile and twenty yards was simply an exercise gallop for Searcher, which immediately went into the lead at the flag dip and remained there to the end, winning in a canter by five lengths from Adelante, which lasted long enough to beat the fast closing Rasselas a head on the post for second money. The latter ran a good race after making up some ground in the last quarter. About showed speed for seven furlongs but began to tire in the last eighth. Ida V. was right there for six furlongs.

The day's opener went to the consistent Huzah which beat Lucy Locket easily by a length and a half. The fight for second place was a spirited one, Lucy Locket just managing to get her head in front of St. Tammany as the wire was reached while Foray was only a head back of the pair. Foray ran a sparkling race, coming from nearly last position when entering the stretch and finishing with a rush at the end on the inside rail. Both Zella Knight and Blue-mint showed early speed.

Favonius won on his higher class in the last race despite the fact that the talent picked Flying Torpedo to beat him. He laid along in third position to the final eighth where he was called upon and came away with a rush, winning easily by a length and a half. Flying Torpedo was second, a half length in the lead of Captain Hamm. The last named showed a good turn of speed, leading by a length when turning for home but he began to tire when the rub came. Flying Torpedo was badly outrun in the early part of the race, but was moving at a fast clip when nearing the wire. King Dellis came with a determined rush at the end and would have beaten Captain Hamm for third place in another stride. The Butcher was right there for six furlongs.

The racing was marked by considerable bidding up, in which Sam Hildreth played the star part. He ran Landseer up to $2,000 and led him away to his barn along with Searcher, which he also bid up to $2,200 and bought. He also bought Duty for $500 and Precursor for $600 at private sale, and altogether seemed to be a man in need of horses and in a hurry to fill the void.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Mr. R. A. Hiller has been made secretary of the Worth Jockey Club and may be accounted a permanent addition to Chicago's list of executive racing officials. Mr. Hiller in point of years is the junior of the local secretaries, but has had abundant experience in the line of the duties he will be called upon to discharge at Worth, having for six years been assistant to Secretary M. N. Macfarlan of the New Memphis Jockey Club, and that is a very good school to graduate from. Another new official at Worth will be Colonel S. M. Apperson, who will act as steward, representing the Western Jockey Club. For its fall meeting the Worth Jockey Club will offer no stakes, but will give a number of specials worth from $700 to $1,000 added and a purse program so liberal as to be fully up to the Chicago standard.

Little Minch has been gathered to his fathers. The great mass of the present generation of race-goers know but little of this horse and yet it is not so many years back that he was at once the torment and the delight of patrons of the tracks, east and west. He was a bay by Glenelg—Goldstone, and first became noted as an extremely fast sprinter by his performances over the tracks around New York. Later he became the property of Hankins & Johnson and

Time, 3:22.

Winner—B. c. by Logic—La Sylphide.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Semper Ira was easily best and outjumped and outraced his field throughout. Kufa, much improved and easily the best of the others, finished strongly. Miss Mitchell but for bolting at several hurdles might have been closer up at the end. Cheesemite will do better through the field and is very fit. Holland lost ground in taking hurdles and ran a generally bad race, which was foreshadowed in the betting. Captain January was green at the business. He was under a choking pull for the first mile, should improve greatly, as he can beat this kind on the flat.

Scratched—2654 Matt Simpson, 152; 26883 The Driver, 140; Conquer, 135; 27141 Musician, 139.

Winner—Br. c. by Pirate of Penance—Right Wild.

Went to post at 2:55. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Wild Pirate came strongly in the stretch under a vigorous ride and won going away. Maltster and Barbara Frietchie with competent jockeys might have both beaten him. They were badly messed about and had little chance. Both ran impressive races. Pleasant Sail and Dr. Riddle raced each other into exhaustion in the first six furlongs, opening a big gap on the others and setting a very fast pace. Wait Not closed ground at the end and should prove useful this fall. Margravate lacked his usual speed and ran a bad race. The others were outclassed.

Scratched—(27637) Bold Knight, 111; 27988 Alsike, 102; 27839 Blueaway, 101; (27836) Annie Thompson, 95.

*Coupled in betting.

Winner—Ch. c. by Watercross—Margerique.

Went to post at 3:25. At post 14 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second handily. Nasturtium had the entire field behind him driving early to keep within striking distance. He finished under a mild pull and was apparently not extended at any point in the race and won like a second Hamburg. Goldsmith ran a grand race, but was under a mild drive to save second place from Endurance by Right, which showed the most brilliant speed and bulldog gameness, and though beaten, confirmed her magnificent showing at Saratoga. Baron is improving steadily and finished strongly and was easily best of the others. Sir Oliver and Flywheel ran in improved form. Dixieline and Hyphen performed badly. Dixieline was on the extreme outside and was hustled off his stride and run into weariness early. Throw out his race.

Scratched—(25161) Cunard, 115; 27589 Golden Cottage, 115; 27990 Heno, 105.

for them won many races over the Chicago and other western tracks. He was a terror while at the post and no starter could get him away until he was satisfied in his own horse mind that it was a go, and then he was off like a shot and in the lead. His antics at the post were such that they were always taken good naturedly by racing assemblages because it was apparent to anybody that the little rascal was only scheming on his own account to get the best of the start. Few horses of the last two decades have been more popular or had a more constant following. He was last the property of Barney Schreiber and was chloroformed to death because of an incurable infirmity that caused him great suffering. Another horse, famous in connection with the Hankins and Johnson stable, that died recently at Woodlands Stud, was the brood mare Agnes, by Gilroy-Laura Bruce. She was the dam of Jacobin, Macbeth II., Robespierre and Laura Agnes, all of which raced with distinction in the colors of the stable named.

At St. Louis yesterday Lawyer Thomas J. Rowe, representing Attorney General Crow, appeared before Judge Zachritz and filed a petition asking that the Delmar bookmakers be ordered to show cause, if any, why they should not be punished for their open and defiant disobedience of the order of the court restraining them from making books.

Judge Zachritz then issued an order this afternoon commanding the bookmakers at Delmar track to appear at court at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court in failing to obey the injunction issued by him and served on them yesterday.

Meanwhile at Jefferson City Attorneys Clardy and Overall applied to Judge Gantt of the Supreme Court in Chambers, asking for a writ of prohibition against Judge Zachritz to prohibit him from assuming jurisdiction over the Delmar race track and from enforcing his order of injunction heretofore issued. Attorney General Crow and Judge Thomas B. Harvey appeared for the state and argument of the case was begun at once.

WINNERS AT SARATOGA.

The many large stake events decided during the meeting of the Saratoga Racing Association, which ended on Thursday last, gave a chance to many owners to win big amounts during the twenty-two days' racing. W. C. Whitney was the largest winner with $30,260. The two-year-old Goldsmith was responsible for most of the winnings, for he won the Flash and Saratoga Special, in addition to running second in a big stake to his stable companion, King Hanover. Frank Farrell, by the aid of the three-year-old, Blues, which he purchased during the Saratoga meeting, won $16,835. Those who won $500 or more were:

Time, 1:01%.
Winner—Br. c, by Lord Hartington—Mary Greenwood.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 10 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Setanket was lucky and easily best and ran like a more than useful colt. Fontenix was lucky throughout and ran in much improved form. Cassville was nearly left but closed a big gap and finished fast. Lieschen was prominent to the last furlong post and was short. The big field puts form at a discount as to the rear horses.
Scratched—27991 Graden, 102; 28009 Trump, 102; 26805 Major Daniels, 102; Troth, 94.
Overweights—Batyah, 2 pounds; Legation, 1.

Winner—B. g, by Candlemas—Flibbertigibbet.
Went to post at 5:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Kinnick was best, moved up fast on the backstretch and ran all around his field and finished strongly. Louisville ran a first-class, speedy and game race at the weights. Bellario was shut off at a critical point on the stretch turn and was a good but unlucky horse. He finished strongly and shows steady improvement. St. Finnan, consistent and in good form, made what appeared like a winning move in the stretch, but failed right at the end. Agnes D. failed to stick in the last quarter.

Scratched—27999 Golden Grain, 97.
Overweights—St. Finnan, 1 pound.

Time, 24, 49%, 1:14%.

Winner—Br. c, by Hermance—Complete.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next three driving. Huzzah showed the most speed for the entire route and the result was never in doubt. Lucy Locket was tiring fast at the end and would have been beaten for second place in another stride by St. Tammany. The latter came with a whirl at the end on the inside rail and was fairly running past horses. He made up much ground while coming down the last quarter. Foray tired somewhat in the closing strides. Tommy Foster came fast in the last eighth. He was badly out of just before turning for home but got through in the natural spread at the head of the stretch. Blue-mint and Zella Knight showed early speed.
Overweights—Simoon, 24 pounds; Blumint, 2.

Winner—Ch. g, by Mariner—Marinette.
Went to post at 2:50. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Master Mariner and St. Cuthbert ran head and head to the last hundred yards where the latter faltered, and the former appeared to be a handy winner, but Andes came with a cyclonic rush at the end and almost nipped Master Mariner on the post. Andes awakened with a start and ran one of the best races of his life. St. Cuthbert ran his race. He does not appear to like a stiff argument. Toah finished fast. Rival Dare was well tired when an eighth out. Velma Clark ran a good race and is ready to win when placed right.
Scratched—27780 Pencil Me, 97.
Overweights—Master Mariner, 14 pounds.
Master Mariner, show, 7 to 20. Andes, show, 3 to 2. St. Cuthbert, show, 1 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f, by King Eric—Dutch Girl.
Went to post at 3:15. At post 30 seconds. Start good. Won in a fierce drive; second easily. Eva Moe fenced cleanly but had to be driven out to the last ounce to stall off Refugee's determined bid in the final eighth. The latter ran a good race considering that it was his first attempt at hurdle racing. He lost ground at each obstacle, but made it up on the flat. Mazo tired badly when a furlong out. Corrillo and Cassio went down at the third jump.

Winner—B. c, by St. Blaise—Soney Lass.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Star Chamber is regaining form, ran one of his good races and led from start to finish. He had to be driven out to the limit in the closing strides to stall off Malay's determined bid at the end. Strangest ran a good race, but was outrun all the way.
Overweights—Malay, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. g, by De Beauvoir—Lady Hope.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Landseer closed up fast and resolutely in the last eighth and was going away at the end. Lingo was speedy for five furlongs and then began to tire. She was much the best of the others at that. Throstle had enough when a furlong out. Santa Teresa runs best in soft going. Legal Maxim was never a contender. Prince Webb showed early speed. The winner, entered for $800, was run up to $2,000 and bought by S. C. Hildreth.

Winner—Ch. g, by Hindoo—Queen Regent.
Went to post at 4:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Searcher was in a soft spot and simply played with his field. Adelante closed fast in the last sixteenth, but just lasted long enough to beat Rasselas on the post for second place. The latter came strongly at the end and, altogether, ran a good race. About was right there for seven furlongs and then fell away beaten. Ida V. ran well for about six and a half furlongs.

Winner—Br. h, by Kinglike—Favonia.
Went to post at 5:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Favonia is improving, came away when called upon in the last eighth and won without much trouble. Flying Torpedo, badly outrun in the first part of the race, finished fast and strongly but had no chance to beat the winner. Captain Hamm ran a cracking good race but was tiring at the end and would have lost third place in another stride to King Dellis. The latter finished strongly. The Butcher was right there for six furlongs.
Favonia, show, 1 to 2. Flying Torpedo, show, out. Captain Hamm, show, 3 to 2.

Winner—B. f, by St. Saviour—St. Cyria.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving and all out; second the same. All Saints was best, but was driving hard all through the last furlong to stall off J. H. Sloan and Montreal. The former was wearing the leader down and would have won in another stride. Montreal hung on gamely when it came to a drive. May made too much use of Edith Q. when rounding the far turn and she tired after closing a gap of half a dozen lengths.
Overweights—All Saints, 4 pounds; Edith Q., 5.
J. H. Sloan, show, 7 to 10. Montreal, show, out. Edith Q., show, out.

Winner—B. m, by Racine—Rosebud.
Went to post at 4:55. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second in a drive. Racebud was best and never was extended. Colonel Ballentyne had to go all around his field to get up. He ran a good race and was closing at the end. Ahamo and Flop closed a lot of ground. The latter ran a fine race, but pulled up lame. Johnny Brown and Competitor tired in the last eighth. Zack Ford was practically left. Toluca was given an easy ride after getting away poorly.
Scratched—27983 Spry, 111; 27336 Our Lizzie, 107; 27779 Ethel Davis, 101; 28049 Maggie W., 98; 28018 Rose Bird, 91.

Winner—Br. c, by Sir Dixon—Merdin.
Went to post at 5:24. At post 19 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Mercer came away on the stretch turn, but was hard ridden in the final eighth in a brief drive. The next two were driving to the limit and Thompson outfinished May. Pharoah took the long route and was weakly ridden. Maple showed speed, but tired. Minnie B. was off badly. Euclaire ran a bad race and had no mishaps.

Winner—Ch. f, by Prophecy—Elite III.
Went to post at 2:38. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Stella Perkins is a filly with a fine turn of speed, and with proper handling should have no trouble in taking the measure of better horses than those she beat today. She tipped her field throughout and was never in trouble. Our Jessie was outrun in the first part of the race and came fast through the stretch, but swerved slightly in the last sixteenth and interfered with Queen W., but as the latter was beaten it cut no figure in the result. Martin Bell ran a disappointing race. Ursula Gurnett ran out on the stretch turn.
Scratched—26359 Rosy Cross, 108; 27325 Lady Brockway, 108; 27512 Satchel, 107; 27994 Miss Hume, 100.

Winner—Ch. f, by Fonso—Lady Ballard.
Went to post at 3:06. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ermack broke well in motion, showed sufficient speed to go to the front and raced Countess Clara into submission in the last five furlongs, then won with plenty in reserve. Eliza Dillon was always a contender and finished resolutely. Glove performed well. Countess Clara was raced into exhaustion in the first five-eighths in chasing Ermack and quit at the end. Axares was badly interfered with on numerous occasions, this considered he ran a good race and should have no trouble in earning brackets.
Scratched—26913 The Count, 116; 24921 Hilliard, 113; 26641 Cicely Thorncap, 113; 26264 Ironess, 113; 27450 Broodler, 88; 27378 Pamplona, 88.

Went to post at 3:41. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Enghurst was cleverly rated until the stretch was reached, where he was given his head and came away and won in race horse style. Albert F. Dewey ran a good race considering the much use he was made of in the early stages. El Caney was raced to defeat by Albert F. Dewey and ceased to be a factor after going three quarters.
Scratched—25395 Nabockleish, 107; (28029) Chorus Boy, 103; 27515 Tom Gilmore, 102.
